*At this time, a member of the public is welcome to address the Board on any public matter that is a non-agenda item; however, the audience must remember the Right to Privacy Act concerning individuals. The Chairperson may interrupt or terminate an individual's statement when it is too lengthy, personally directed, abusive, or irrelevant. A patron who wishes to speak on an agenda item will be recognized by the Board Chair when the Board gets to that item on the agenda. The public should realize that this is a Trustees business meeting conducted in a public forum. The Chairperson may impose reasonable time limits on public comment, including a limit of three (3) minutes per speaker, as allowed by law.
